

have many years of experience and a variety of solutions for any financial problem, but we always prefer to work with you to find out what your desired outcome is.

Sometimes to resolve the difficulties you or your business are facing, all we need to do is have a chat and work out the easiest solution. For more complex issues, we can find a tailor-made solution.

Whatever the situation, if you need help, give us a call because we would love to be able to help reduce the stress and worry, even if you decide not to instruct us.

Company Directors

If your company is insolvent liquidation may be the best solution. If you need advice in relation to your company's position, and/or your position as a Director, we can assist.

Sole Trader

If a sole trader finds itself in cash flow difficulties, the insolvency options are either Individual Voluntary Arrangement or a Bankruptcy Order. Which procedure is appropriate depends on the circumstances that apply.

Personal Debt

If circumstances have conspired against you and you are finding it difficult to manage your financial affairs we can help. We have developed specialist web sites to assist people with personal debt problems.

Creditors

We are seeking to provide creditors with a good standard of service in terms of communication and expediting dividend payments. We provide case information online to registered users.

WHAT WE DO

Global Insolvency Solutions Limited Provide a full range of insolvency and business advisory services.

LEARN MORE

HOW WE CAN HELP

Global Insolvency Solutions Limited use business and commercial experience
as well as our professional skills

LEARN MORE

WHY CHOOSE US

Global Insolvency Solutions Limited are a totally independent insolvency
practice

LEARN MORE

BUSINESS

A company is insolvent when it can't pay its debts. This could mean that 1.It can't pay bills when they become due, 2.It has more liabilities than assets on its balance sheet. If your business is struggling financially, it could be at risk of liquidation.

PERSONAL

People encounter financial challenges for many different reasons. These reasons can range from divorce to job loss; from student debt to overspending on credit cards and are often accompanied by extreme emotional pressures and stresses.

ADVISORS

As a professional business adviser, you may come across a client in financial difficulties. We can help you and your client by providing specialist advice on Business Rescue and Recovery, Business Liquidation, Individual Liquidation, Administration.