ABOUT ME

Gregory Odia

Acting as the first point of contact, building positive and long lasting relationships.

Engaging and understanding the various needs of our clients in detail, seeking to introduce them to our skilled advisers, ensuring quality of service and maintaining best practice.

Working with professionals in senior leadership, management and executive positions, my aim is to provide holistic support and advice that covers all aspects of a clients personal and professional financial life journey.

About me

A qualified adviser, I am a father of two with a sporting background, playing rugby from the age of 14, I played for Saracens RFC from the age of 18 before moving to boxing and Thai Boxing whereby I trained and fought at an amateur and professional level.
